Councilman Garrett said that last year we received part of Hardyston’s contribution and asked if this was included and was answered that it was not, that it was separate from Hamburg’s and we received two separate contributions once Hardyston split theirs.

Mayor Marino spoke to the Mayor of Hardyston at the end of April regarding EMS services into Hardyston. Administrator Maryann Smith did contact Councilman Law shortly afterwards and they are expecting Hamburg to continue covering Hardyston until December 31. Councilman Law replied that from that point on they would respond as mutual aid as before, with Hamburg being the second call-out and would like an agreement in place to that effect. Mayor Marino has concerns about this and Hardyston putting together a squad in a short amount of time. Councilman Law said that the department is becoming “burned out”, running so many calls into Hardyston. He said the department does not mind being the 2nd call out, but does not want to be the 1st to respond. Mayor Marino suggested that EMS come up with a plan and get a resolution together for July for Council.

When asked if he knew what Hardyston’s plan was, Councilman Law said they were going to reach out to Franklin and also Wallkill Valley; having a paid service during the day and volunteers for night.
