YMCA Family Swim

Suzette spoke to the director of the pool Ray Gaffney who will honor the amount that we paid the last time we scheduled an event there - $225.00 with one lifeguard for 25 people. An additional $50.00 charge will be added for an additional lifeguard if there are more than 25 people in the pool. Friday, April 8th date, from 5:45 pm – 7:45 pm is planned. Family Golf Day

This event is scheduled for May 15th from 12:30 pm – 3:30 pm at Black Bear Golf Course in Franklin. Sign up will be on line as it was last year. A rain date was discussed and Art will discuss with the golf course and let us know.

Hamburg Contests

The contest date was change to June 5th at the Firemen's Pavilion. Suzette will chair the event and Kathy will contact Newton Trophy to order the sashes and trophies. More will be discussed at the next meeting.

Ice Cream Social

Members discuss two dates – June 26th and July 16th for the social. Kathy will send an email to Tom Gardner to find out his availability to play. Discussion also about the ice cream cups or dishing it out. More discussion will take place.

Hamburg Day

Members discuss reaching out to the community and holding a Hamburg Day with amusements and vendors. Kathy will see if the amusement company will be able to supply any amusements at this late date. Joyce will check with the Council for their feedback on a Hamburg Day. Finance will have to be included in the discussion as well.

Movie Night

Suzette thought about holding the movie night the 1st weekend in September when everyone is back in school. Joyce suggested having it at the Firemen’s Pavilion as there are lights and semi-lit parking. Members discussed a “floor plan” for the projector. More will be discussed for this event also.

Foot Golf

Art prepared a flyer for the event with all the details. Depending on the date of the Ice Cream Social, date of June 10th or July 15 was discussed and Art will also check the availability with the golf course. Members thought the event was a great idea. Once again, registration was on the Crystal Springs website.
